Have You Heard?

Have you heard the call to help out with our Sunday morning sound and slide volunteers? Also known as our tech team, we're calling for four people to volunteer one or two Sundays a month to help us out on sound and slides. It's pretty simple, and we'll teach you how! So, please answer the call and get in touch with Sherry Wilhelm, swilhelm@stpaulucc.org; or Bill Wade drwewade@gmail.com; or Pastor Michelle pastormichelle@stpaulucc.org or call the church office at 618-233-3303 to let us know.

Pastor's Message - World Communion Sunday

Each year on the first Sunday of October, we commemorate World Communion Sunday. Each Sunday we celebrate the meal of Christ, there are people all across the world coming to the table as well. Yet on this particular Sunday every year, we focus on how large this table is and the diversity of its members. From Kenya to Chile to France, there are people partaking in this same meal, remembering Jesus the Christ who lived among us and whose Spirit abides with us today.

I've always believed it's crucial that we see and extend the communion table beyond time and space. When we watch a worship service hours after it has been live, and we choose to take communion, we are still part of that table and still part of that communion service. When we take communion from home and use whatever elements we have on hand, we are still part of that communion experience.

This table influences many other parts of our faith. Whenever we can eat together - whether with the Culinaires on the third Sunday of the month or getting together with a church friend to dine outside along East Main Street, we celebrate the Christ around us. When we serve food during our Tuesday night meals and donate to the Interfaith Food Pantry, we honor the table of Christ. Like Jesus sharing meals with the crowds, our faith leads us to share food with our neighbors as well.

The table of Christ reminds us we are not alone in our joys and our struggles. As we are the branches to Jesus the Christ's vine, we are always connected. The days may be getting cooler here in the northern hemisphere, but holy meal we will eat on October 3 and each first Sunday of the month thereafter reminds us of the warmth that abides in the community of St. Paul UCC and the hearts of our congregants.

Blessings,
Pastor Michelle

A Letter from the Council President

The visioning team has met twice. It has been a rough start and as a leader I take some of the blame and responsibility. However, nothing with great meaning has ever been accomplished without some rough patches, especially with the people of God. Just read your bible. The Israelites were barely out of Egypt when they thought they had made a mistake with pharaoh's army at their heels and complained to Moses and God that maybe they had made a mistake and should have stayed in Egypt. Once within the promised land, the tribes eventually could not get along and split into the northern kingdom of Israel and the southern kingdom of Judah. The disciples, in Jesus presence, quarreled amongst themselves. The early church was never united and in agreement. Paul and the church in Jerusalem, specifically, James the brother of Jesus, did not see eye to eye. We have all the letters of Paul written mostly to churches for correction and exhortation due to contention within the church or what he perceived to be due to false beliefs. Yet in all of these instances, God continued to work with the flawed individuals and groups to bring forth the results he desired. Church is much like family. And relationships and movement within families gets messy, but if we keep God in our hearts and seek what God would have us do and be, we too can achieve what God has in store for us.

This is not going to be a short quick fix if we expect to do it right. It is not for a small group of individuals to decide the future direction and ministry of St. Paul UCC. It is the responsibility and privilege of the entire congregation to pray and rest in God to discern the way forward. The team is currently interviewing a number of potential facilitators to determine if we wish to hire someone to help us in this process or do it without. Our plan is to vision the ongoing ministry of St. Paul, with clear goals and pathways to achieve those goals. This will require your prayers for the members of the team, and your participation, when called upon to help in the process. Feel free to contact me, Pastor Michelle or any member of the visioning team with concerns or interests. Members include Mimi Llamas, Richard Erdmann, Dave Hoffman, Terry and Synthia Kalinowski, Gus Kuether, Sandy and Rusty Wagner.

Come one, come all with an open mind and heart! Come when you can even if you have to miss session(s). No prior knowledge is necessary. There is no homework. No tests. It will not influence your GPA. We, even our multi-facilitators, are searchers and travelers on our own faith journey. Come join us for varied, nonjudgmental discussions. A 32 page participant's document of discussion starters and questions can be provided in two ways. The church can print a copy for you for a small donation or send you a PDF via email to be printed at home. For more information contact the church office at 618-233-3303.

The Neighbors in Need offering, which we will receive on October 3rd supports the UCC's ministries of justice and compassion throughout the United States. Two-thirds of the offering is used by the UCC's Justice and Witness Ministries to fund a wide array of local and national justice initiatives, advocacy efforts, and direct service projects.

Through ucc.org/justice, our national Justice and Witness Ministries office offers resources, news updates, and action alerts on a broad spectrum of justice issues. Working with members of the UCC Justice and Peace Action Network (a network of thousands of UCC justice and peace advocates), Justice and Witness continues its strong policy advocacy work on issues such as the federal budget, voting rights, immigration, health care, hate crimes, civil liberties, and environmental justice.

Neighbors in Need also supports our American Indian neighbors in the UCC. One-third of the offering supports the UCC's Council for American Indian Ministries (CAIM). Today there are 20 UCC congregations on reservations and one urban, multi-tribal UCC congregation in Minneapolis, Minnesota.

Neighbors in Need helps make Unfailing Love possible.
For this to occur, it needs your support.

Please give generously. And remember, contributions to Neighbors in Need can be made online at anytime:

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION EVENTS NEEDS YOUR HELP

Christian Ed is conducting a lesson for Sunday School every 2nd and 4th Sunday from 10:15 to 10:45. We have gracious teachers that have volunteered to teach the lesson prepared from Pastor Michelle. This class is for K-thru grade 5.

Pastor Michelle is conducting a round table lesson once a month for grades 6 thru 12. After the lesson games follow. The August event went very well and have invited a few others that are interested in coming September 26. Pastor Michelle will also ask some of the youth to participate in the Technology aspect of the 9 o'clock service to help make them feel more engaged in the service.

Christian Ed team is inviting the congregation to donate funds or packaged candy for our Community outreach Trunk or Treat. We have invited 3 neighborhood schools to come join the festivities. Masks are required. The Fine Arts Concert Series will host a spooky organ concert on Friday night, October 29th with the Trunk or Treat followed on Saturday morning from 10-12. We have 8 trunks that have volunteered, so if you would like to dress up and join the fun with a trunk call Sandy Ritter at 222-1123 to reserve a spot. Thanks for all the team work to make St. Paul UCC a fun, safe place to be.

Christian Ed Board has also been holding a Bible Study on Tuesday mornings from 10-11. We will start a new lesson October 5th in the Library. Please feel free to join us for interesting conversation and friendship. Thanks to all of our facilitators who have made this possible.

So as you can see Christian Ed Team is making a difference and will keep you updated on what is on the agenda. Please feel free to call if you have a question or comment otherwise please join in on making St. Paul UCC a great church of which to be a member.

Your Christian Ed Team, Marlene Mueller, Sandy Ritter, Syndy Kalinowski, Bette Rotert and Mary Lu Bretsch.
